

Your safety

Your safety is important to us. Although our tours are not adventure tours you will need to have some comfortable shoes to walk in. Where necessary we will provide you with other equipment.

We have a mobile and first aid kit close by, and before embarking on a tour, weather will always be taken into consideration, therefore some selections might not be possible.